Rodolfo G. Gutierrez-Marcias, MD
Pediatrics

"I chose medicine as an opportunity to integrate service, science and humanism to benefit the people who are in need of health care. I listen to and involve my patients in their health care, providing them with the tools to make their own health choices."

Swapna Manthena, MD
Family Medicine

"If we could give every individual the right amount of nourishment and exercise, not too little and not too much, we would have found the safest way to health."
- Hippocrates

Neesha Settipalle, MD
Internal Medicine

"I chose Internal Medicine because I am able to develop long term relationships with my patients while helping them live their best lives. I believe in a 'healthy mind, healthy body,' which comes from awareness and cultivating good habits over time."

Lee R. Dockray, MD, FAAP
Pediatrics

"My job as a pediatrician is to help guide parents through the maze of raising happy, healthy well-adjusted children who live up to their maximum potential. My approach is that children are well until proven otherwise."
